

5. Extreme Behavior

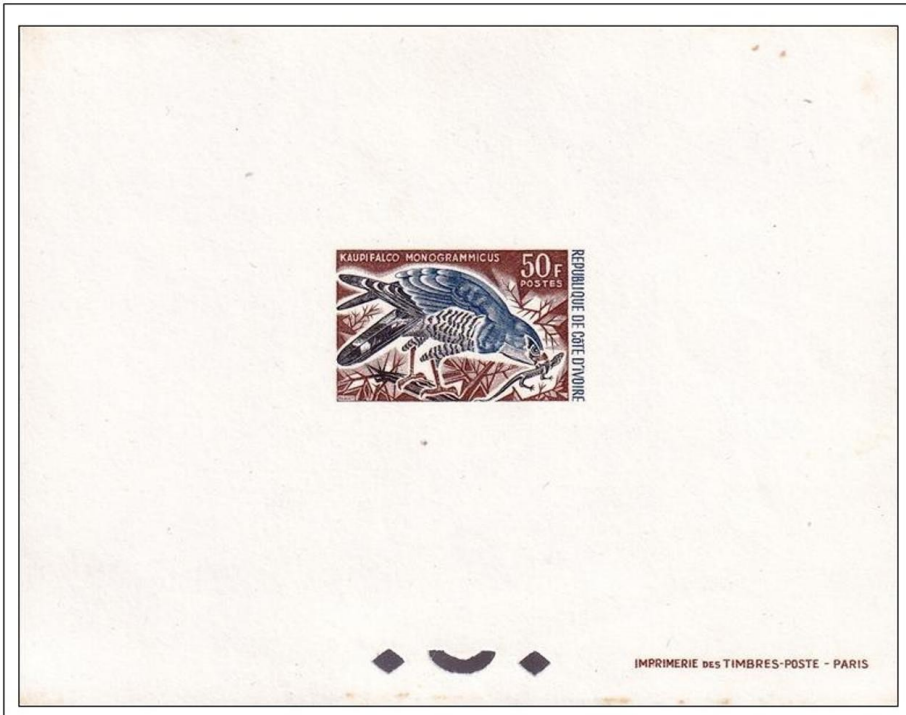

5.3 Silent Raptor

Lizard Buzzard (Kaupifalco monogrammicus) Geographical Distribution – Savannah woodland, Sub-Saharan Africa
Behavior - solitary and silent raptors.

It feeds mainly on small reptiles such as lizards, geckos and snakes. They rarely catch prey in flight.
 It also eats small mammals such as rabbits, mice and other rodents, and small birds killed with its sharp claws. .

1965.
 Gravure printed Die Proof with an Imperf

It also hawks insects in flight such as butterflies, bees, wasps, and hunts locusts / ants.

Lizard buzzards are solitary and silent Raptors.

1965
 Embossed,
 Artist
 Signed
 Proof from the Archives.

Artist
 Pierre
 Briquette

