

Lactarius lignyotus

It grows solitary or in groups of few specimens in humid areas e forest moss spruce mountains. he advises against it gastronomic use because of its rarity.

Class: Agaricomycetes

Order: Russulales

Family: Russulaceae

Issue: Mushrooms of the National Park of Mercantour 1988 Monaco

Cancellation: Monaco 26-05-1988. First day

Edition: CEF - Nice

Geastrum fimbriatum

Inedible, without food value. It is one of the strangest and most decorative Gastromycetes opening in the shape of a star. Frequently found in the mountains, even at high altitudes

Class: Agaricomycetes

Order: Geastrales

Family: Geastraceae

Issue: Mushrooms 2021 Romania

Cancellation: Bucarest 06-05-2021. First day

Edition: Romfilatelia

